Put it on Record.

Some of the charges, and the general character of the article itself, is so atrocious that we are astonished that the editors of that sheet should permit it to appear in their columns.

We are still more surprised that they should come to live among a people, a majority of whom are stigmatized as belonging to a band of murderers.

The only excuse we can possibly form for the writer of it, is that he knew he was lying in every sentence, and merely wrote to see what a slashing and elegant political article he could compose; heedless and reckless of the feelings of others.

We are sure he did not, himself, believe what he has said; if he did, how can he live amongst us, and permit a family to grow up under such influences, surrounded by those who "put arms into the hands of Brown to shoot down the people of Virginia, and who are now fermenting insurrections in the south and aiding the slaves to murder their masters?"

True, the republicans of Rock county are not particularly named but the general accusation is made against us all. It is "this same party" of which we are members which is accused, and "whose history is smeared all over with blood and treason!"

We do not desire to stir up any anger against the writer of this article—we do not believe he realizes what he says—we don't hold any man quite sane whose partisan fanaticism will incite him to utter such words.

He is tainted with the same aberration of intellect that incited John Brown to take vengeance into his own hands; and had he the courage and sincerity of Brown, would be just as dangerous a man. But we will not further speculate upon the motives which induced the publication of this article, and will conclude by giving the extract—

In defiance of the fact that this same party contemned and aided the felon and murderer Brown, in his foray against the lives and property of the people of Virginia—that its members placed arms in his hands to shoot down in cold blood his innocent and unoffending countrymen—that they tolled bells in token of their sympathy and sorrow at the felon's fate which he met and so richly deserved upon the gallows—that they draped in mourning their public halls, and private residences in token of their sympathy with his objects, and regret at his failure—in the very face of the fact that in the far south, the emissaries and fanatics of this republican party are fomenting insurrections among the slaves, urging them to arson, and placing the murderous knife in the hands of the slave, with which to cut the throat of his master—this same party with an effrontery unheard of and hypocritical, unparalleled, claims to be the friends of the south, conservators of the law, the advocates of religion, the guardian of the public morals and the only true friends of their country.

With its fanaticism—and its history smeared all over with blood and treason in our own state, can it be that the thinking and conservative people of the north will assist to place in power the republican party, with a man at its head, who dare not go on a political mission into the state which gave him birth—whose principles are so obnoxious to those among whom he was born and reared, that he could scarce trust himself to ask for the hospitality and amenities of life, for which that state is so proverbial; and which the "first law of nature," self-protection and self-preservation would almost compel them to refuse him.

SENATORIAL NOMINATIONS.—J. T. Kingston, Esq., has been nominated by the republicans of the Sauk, Juneau and Adams districts for senator. This senatorial district was represented, during the last term, by H. W. Carriss, Esq.

Miss A. M. Hemingway of Ludlow, Yt., is publishing in fourteen quarterly numbers a digest of the history of each town in Vermont, giving an account of its settlement, the promising features of its history, and sketches of its inhabitants who have distinguished themselves at home or abroad.

For months past the public ear has been filled with reports from Texas that the Abolitionists were exciting insurrections among the slaves, and setting fire to private dwellings in the country, and burning up towns and cities. It was at first attributed to McKimney and Blount, and their friends; but it was soon ascertained that these men were living peacefully at home, one in this state, and the other in Illinois, and this theory was given up. Still the frightened people insisted that there were Abolitionists in their midst, tampering with their slaves, and kept on hanging, whipping and burning all whom they suspected, both whites and blacks. The democratic prints in the north, regardless of the loss of life on the part of innocent men, fanned the flame, telling the people of the south that the republicans were as dangerous to them as John Brown, and that they could expect nothing better of Lincoln should he be elected. The Texas people, of course, were and are yet in a frenzy of fear. A reign of terror was organized, and no man, northern or southern, was safe. But light begins to break in upon these people; it is now ascertained that many of the rumors were mere fictions of the imagination, and what there is to ground their fears upon comes partly from an organized gang of robbers, and partly from politicians.

The Mobile Register of the 9th, says that "within the past twelve years, at the eve of every presidential election, the very air we breathe becomes sultry with dark rumors and horrid alarms of servile insurrections. It behooves us to investigate the causes of so strange an anomaly."

If a truthful investigation should be had, it would be found that villainous political adventurers in the north have much to do with these alarms. They play upon the fears of the south by telling them that "in the far south the emissaries and fanatics of the republican party are fomenting insurrections among the slaves, urging them to arson, and placing the murderous knife in the hands of the slave, with which to cut the throat of his master."

(See Daily Democrat of this city.) These adventurers expect to gain credit among the southern people, and by pretending to be informers of what is going on here in the north, get their pay in official favors from the general government, which the south, by the aid of this northern scum, have been able to bestow. It is well that the south seeks to know the truth of this matter. They are welcome to come here and ascertain the origin of these horrible rumors. They will find that they have no foundation in truth, and that the northern people desire no such fate to overtake their brethren at the south as has been described—that the authors of these scandalous lies are seeking to stir up strife between the two sections of the country, that they may divide the spoils of office among themselves. The promulgation of these rumors—such as we have quoted from the Janesville Daily Democrat—are likely to lead to the very occurrences which they describe. The crime of murder is suggested to the slave, if he should read what has been said—he hears, as the slaves of Tennessee did during the Fremont campaign—that republican emissaries are in the south, and this encourages him—that they are fomenting insurrection, and the slave gets ready to join it—that the plan is to burn houses and place the murderous knife at the throat of the master—and he gets his torch and knife ready. Such a programme as this being proposed, how slight a circumstance will set it all in motion. When done, and blood and devastation cover the south, in consequence of these suggestions, behold the Democrat, holding up his hands in horror at the spectacle, charging it all upon the republicans, who are innocent of any blot of instigating such misery and crime. If the south should learn the whole truth in the matter, we are persuaded, that these false and dangerous friends of theirs would be cast aside, and they would at the same time free themselves from groundless fears in relation to the intentions of the northern people.

GOOD NEWS FROM INDIANA.—The Madison Journal says that Mr. H. Cordier, of that city has returned from a campaign of several weeks in Southern Indiana, whither he went by invitation of the republican committee to address the German population. He brings the most favorable accounts of the republican cause there. He visited the same points in 1856, and says that where one German republican was then found there are twenty now. He puts down Indiana as sure for Lincoln.

REPUBLICAN MEETING AT MONROE.—The republicans of Green county had a very large and enthusiastic meeting at Monroe on Tuesday. There were, we learn, eight or ten thousand people present. Senator Doolittle, Gov. Randall and H. Lindeman of Watertown, made eloquent and telling speeches, and altogether the meeting was a perfect success.

NOMINATION OF SAMUEL C. BEAN.—The republican convention in the east senatorial district of Dane county, met at Door Creek, Tuesday, and nominated Hon. S. C. Bean for the state senate.

A SONNAMBULIST ON THE CARS.—A gentleman a few days ago crossed from a sleeping car on the Lake Shore road, and this side of Erie, and the conductor saw him with eyes open, coat and boots off, but had no idea that he was asleep, and let him pass. He went on and opened the car door, the cars were at full speed, and the man asleep and alone, is on the platform. He goes down the steps, and soon the conductor makes search for him everywhere through the train, but he was not to be found. A man was sent back on a horse car, and soon found him, not much injured, but a very mad man. The fellow, finding in which he goes in for that class of all political adventurers, Democrats. It is a bad political record in any place, but more especially in sound old Rock, where slavery apologists are so much to be met.

BAD PLACE FOR AN OLD FREE SOILER.—A new Douglas paper has been started at Janesville edited by W. H. Bristol and J. C. Mann. W. H. Bristol was an old whig; a freesoiler; then an ardent aspirant for a postoffice, failing in which, he goes in for that class of all political adventurers, Democrats. It is a bad political record in any place, but more especially in sound old Rock, where slavery apologists are so much to be met.

Two villains lately entered the house of Mr. Guntz, near the Hellenville postoffice. As it was early in the morning nobody was in but Mrs. Guntz, who was in bed, and they presented pistols at her head and rifled a trunk in the room of $16. A brother-in-law of Mr. Guntz had come from Milwaukee, bringing with him several hundred dollars, and it is supposed that the robbers followed him. Both men are about 35 years of age, and they wore black hats.—Jefferson Co. Republican, 12th.

We publish the following extract from an editorial in the Daily Democrat of this city. Some of the charges, and the general character of the article itself, is so atrocious that we are astonished that the editors of that sheet should permit it to appear in their columns. We are still more surprised that they should come to live among a people, a majority of whom are stigmatized as belonging to a band of murderers. The only excuse we can possibly form for the writer of it, is that he knew he was lying in every sentence, and merely wrote to see what a slashing and elegant political article he could compose; heedless and reckless of the feelings of others. We are sure he did not, himself, believe what he has said; if he did, how can he live amongst us, and permit a family to grow up under such influences, surrounded by those who "put arms in the hands of Brown to shoot down the people of Virginia, and who are now fermenting insurrections in the south and aiding the slaves to murder their masters?" True, the republicans of Rock County are not particularly named but the general accusation is made against us all. It is "this same party" of which we are members which is accused, and "whose history is smeared all over with blood and treason!" We do not desire to stir up any anger against the writer of this article—we do not believe he realizes what he says—we don't hold any man quite sane whose partisan fanaticism will incite him to utter such words. He is tainted with the same aberration of intellect that incited John Brown to take vengeance into his own hands; and had he the courage and sincerity of Brown, would be just as dangerous a man. But we will not further speculate upon the motives which induced the publication of this article, and will conclude by giving the extract:—

And now the republican party seek to make this man president of a free people of which the state of Kentucky constitutes a part. In defiance of the fact that this same party countenanced and aided the felon and murderer Brown, in his foray against the lives and property of the people of Virginia—that its members placed arms in his hands to shoot down in cold blood his innocent and unoffending countrymen—that they tolled bells in token of their sympathy and sorrow at the felon's fate which he met and so richly deserved upon the gallows—that they draped in mourning their public halls, and private residences in token of their sympathy with his objects, and regret at his failure—in the very face of the fact that in the far south, the emissaries and fanatics of this republican party are fomenting insurrections among the slaves, urging them to arson, and placing the murderous knife in the hands of the slave, with which to cut the throat of his master,—this same party with an effrontery unheard of and hypocrisy unparalleled, claims to be the friends of the south, conservators of the law, the advocates of religion, the guardian of the public morals and the only true friends of their country.

With its fanaticism—and its history smeared all over with blood (and treason in our own state), can it be that the thinking and conservative people of the north will assist to place in power the republican party, with a man at its head, who dare not go on a political mission into the state which gave him birth—whose principles are so obnoxious to those among whom he was born and reared, that he could scarce trust himself to ask for the hospitality and amenities of life, for which that state is so proverbial; and which the "first law of nature," self-protection and self-preservation would almost compel them to refuse him.

SENATORIAL NOMINATIONS.—J. T. Kingstons, Esq., has been nominated by the republicans of the Sauk, Juneau and Adams district for senator. This senatorial district was represented, during the last term, by H. W. Curtis, Esq.

Miss A. M. Hemmingsway of Ludlow, Vt. is publishing in fourteen quarterly numbers a digest of the history of each town in Vermont, giving an account of its settlement, the promising features of its history, and sketches of its inhabitants who have distinguished themselves at home or abroad.

JACKMAN & SMITH'S NEW BLOCK.

The work of laying the foundation walls of this block has made considerable progress, quietly and out of sight, under the buildings now standing on the lots. We had noticed that the stone daily delivered at the end of the bridge daily disappeared somewhere, and to-day we had the curiosity to discover how and where. We found the wall fronting on the river, and a part on Milwaukee street in a good degree of forwardness. These walls are under the charge of John Watson, who is doing an unusually good job. The base is laid 5 feet, with solid stone generally 4 by 5 feet, 15 inches thick, the top of the wall being 3 feet. A heavy mass of masonry indicates where the vault of the Rock County Bank, which will have rooms on Milwaukee street fronting on the river, is to be constructed. The foundation of this masonry is laid on the same size of stone as the foundation walls, and shows a structure 10 by 12 feet, 17½ feet high from the base to the bottom of the vault. It looks strong enough to uphold even the U. S. treasury.

The entire block is to be 105 feet on Milwaukee street by 65 on Main street, four stories high, and built with Milwaukee brick. Aside from the rooms for the bank, there will be four stories fronting on Milwaukee street, and one on Main street. It is expected that the building will be so far completed on the 1st of September next as to have the stores in readiness for occupation. When completed it will be a valuable addition to the improvements of the city and an ornament to the town. The builders, Messrs. Jackman & Smith, are abundantly able to erect a structure of this character, and will expend from $20,000 to $25,000 upon it.

ACCIDENT AT THE FAIR GROUND.

Yesterday afternoon, while preparing for a race, a severe accident occurred to "Kitty Miles," the well known running horse. Kitty had been started to exercise over the course, and came in contact with a team before a buggy with Mr. J. M. Burgess crossing the track and buggy, but was unsuccessful, and Kitty received a severe wound, in the flank from the wheel-tree of the buggy. Mr. Burgess was not aware that the track had been cleared for a race. The rider of the mare was thrown from her, and when taken up was supposed to be badly injured, but fortunately he was but slightly hurt.

Mr. Elkins, of La Prairie, was the owner of "Kitty," and had her matched with "Little Flea," for a large purse, the race to take place in Milwaukee in a few days.

FINE MELONS.—C. H. Campbell, of Footville, had some remarkably fine melons on exhibition at the county fair. The variety called the "ice cream" is not excelled by any we have seen in Wisconsin. Several were purchased by our citizens for the purpose of obtaining the seed.

Auction Sale.—Hogan sells to-morrow some valuable household furniture and a splendid double-barrel shot gun, sale commencing at 10 o'clock A. M. This will be a good opportunity for those wanting articles of this kind.

JANESVILLE CARRIAGES.—Among the articles on exhibition at the county fair were three carriages entirely manufactured in this city by L. F. Hathaway, which are worthy of special notice and commendation. These manufactures consisted of a light top buggy, a double-seated extension-top carriage, valued at $350, and a double-seated single-top carriage. In finish, style and strength, they are equal to any of the eastern work brought into the state, and when such articles can be procured at home, there is no reason for sending abroad for them.—We are pleased that such an establishment as Mr. Hathaway has opened exists among us, and commend it to the support of all who appreciate the propriety of sustaining home manufactures. All the timber used by Mr. Hathaway is of the best quality, and imported from the east. It is made up by thoroughly qualified workmen, in a style that would be commended in the best eastern shops.

Telegraph poles are set within ninety miles of Fort Kearney.

A THIRILLING INCIDENT.—The guests of the Lafayette Hotel, corner of Julia and Magazine streets, yesterday, while at dinner, thrown into a paroxysm of excitement by one of thrilling incidents which at least has intense and profound are the sympathies of the human heart.

A woman, a stranger, appeared at the door of the dining room, and uttered a scream of terror. What she said was inaudible, but her actions indicated that something dreadful was occurring. There was a simultaneous rush for the door, and out upon the banquet, when, horror of horrors! a little girl about five years old, a daughter of one of the lady guests of the hotel was seen suspended by her dress from the hook of a window blind in the third story some forty feet above the banquet hall. Every heart ceased for an instant apparently to beat. It was a moment of thrilling, of terrible interest—but it was for an instant only. A friendly hand from within grasped her convulsively, and—little Dora was safe!

As the words "she's safe, she's safe," rang throughout the hall, the mother, who had not yet reached the door, but who nevertheless had a presentiment that her child was in danger, swooned and fell on the floor. The little girl had been at play in the room and swung out upon the blind.—The instant that she was suspended at the giddy height over the banquet, her little hands lost their power, and had not her dress caught upon the hook or catch of the blind, she must have fallen to the ground and been dashed to pieces. Captain Kirk was ascending the stairs at the time, and hearing the alarm and comprehending the what was the matter, rushed into the room and rescued the little creature.—N. O. Bulletin, Tuesday.

The Frog Trade.

The Frog Trade.—The Prairie Farmer says: "Few of our readers, and perhaps few of the citizens of the city, are aware of the extent to which the frog trade is carried in Chicago. There are men who during the entire season have made the catching and marketing of frogs a business—some of them earning three and four dollars per day by this labor. Thousands of frogs have been gathered from the marshes and low wet places to gratify the epicures of the Garden City, and we are informed the trade is constantly improving."

PERSONAL.—John B. Gough, the eloquent temperance orator, will speak in Chicago on Thursday, the 6th of December.

THE SLIPS

Put it on Record.

Some of the charges, and the general character of the article itself, is so atrocious that we are astonished that the editors of that sheet should permit it to appear in their columns.

We are still more surprised that they should come to live among a people, a majority of whom are stigmatized as belonging to a band of murderers.

The only excuse we can possibly form for the writer of it, is that he knew he was lying in every sentence, and merely wrote to see what a slashing and elegant political article he could compose; heedless and reckless of the feelings of others.

We are sure he did not, himself, believe what he has said; if he did, how can he live amongst us, and permit a family to grow up under such influences, surrounded by those who "put arms into the hands of Brown to shoot down the people of Virginia, and who are now fermenting insurrections in the south and aiding the slaves to murder their masters?" True, the republicans of Rock county are not particularly named but the general accusation is made against us all.

It is "this same party" of which we are members which is accused, and "whose history is smeared all over with blood and treason!" We do not desire to stir up any anger against the writer of this article—we do not believe he realizes what he says—we don't hold any man quite sane whose partisan fanaticism will incite him to utter such words.

He is tainted with the same aberration of intellect that incited John Brown to take vengeance into his own hands; and had he the courage and sincerity of Brown, would be just as dangerous a man. But we will not further speculate upon the motives which induced the publication of this article, and will conclude by giving the extract:

In defiance of the fact that this same party committed and aided the felon in and murdered Brown, in his foray against the lives and property of the people of Virginia,—that its members placed arms in his hands to shoot down in cold blood his innocent and unoffending countrymen—that they tolled bells in token of their sympathy and sorrow at the felon's fate who he met and so richly deserved upon the gallows,—that they draped in mourning their public halls, and private residences in token of their sympathy with his objects, and regret at his falling—in the very face of the fact that in the far south, the emissaries and fanatics of this republican party are fomenting insurrections among the slaves, urging them to arson, and placing the murderous knife in the hands of the slave, with which to cut the throat of his master,—this same party with an effusive outburst of and hypocrisy, and unfeeling claims to be the friends of the south, conservators of the law, the advocates of religion, the guardian of the public morals and the only true friends of their country.

With its fanaticism—and its history smeared all over with blood (and treason in our own state) can it be that the thinking and conservative people of the north will assist to place in power the republican party, with a man at its head, who dare not go on a political mission into the state which gave him birth—whose principles are so obnoxious to those among whom he was born and reared, that he could scarce trust himself to ask for the hospitality and amenities of life, for which that state is so proverbial; and which the first law of nature, self-protection and self-preservation would almost compel them to refuse him.

SENATORIAL NOMINATIONS.

J. T. King, Esq., has been nominated by the republicans of the Sauk, Janesville and Adams district for senator.

Miss A. M. Hemmingsway of Ludlow, Vt., is publishing in fourteen quarterly numbers a digest of the history of each town in Vermont, giving an account of its settlement, the promising features of its history, and sketches of its inhabitants who have distinguished themselves at home or abroad.

Rumors of Southern Insurrections.

For months past the public ear has been filled with reports from Texas that the Abolitionists were exciting insurrections among the slaves, and setting fire to private dwellings in the country, and burning up towns and cities.

It was at first attributed to McKimney and Blount, and their friends; but it was soon ascertained that these men were living peaceably at home, one in this state, and the other in Illinois, and this theory was given up.

Still the frightened people insisted that there were Abolitionists in their midst, tampering with their slaves, and kept on hanging, whipping and burning all whom they suspected, both whites and blacks.

The democratic prints in the north, regardless of the loss of life on the part of innocent men, fanned the flame, telling the people of the south that the republicans were as dangerous to them as John Brown, and that they could expect nothing better of Lincoln should he be elected.

The Texas people, of course, were and are yet in a frenzy of fear. A reign of terror was organized, and no man, northern or southern, was safe. But light begins to break in upon these people; it is now ascertained that many of the rumors were mere fictions of the imagination, and what there is to ground their fears upon comes partly from an organized gang of robbers, and partly from politicians.

The Mobile Register of the 9th, says that "within the past twelve years, at the eve of every presidential election, the very air we breathe becomes sultry with dark rumors and horrid alarms of servile insurrections. It behooves us to investigate the causes of so strange an anomaly."

If a truthful investigation should be had, it would be found that villainous political adventurers in the north have much to do with these alarms.

They play upon the fears of the south by telling them that "in the far south the emissaries and fanatics of the republican party are fomenting insurrections among the slaves, urging them to arson, and placing the murderous knife in the hand of the slave, with which to cut the throat of his master."

(See Daily Democrat of this city.) These adventures expect to gain credit among the southern people, and by pretending to be informers of what is going on here in the north, get their pay in official favors from the general government, which the south, by the aid of this northern scum, have been able to bestow.

It is well that the south seeks to know the truth of this matter. They are welcome to come here and ascertain the origin of these horrible rumors. They will find that they have no foundation in truth, and that the northern people desire no such fate to overtake their brethren at the south as has been described—that the authors of these scandalous lies are seeking to stir up strife between the two sections of the country, that they may divide the spoils of office among themselves.

The promulgation of these rumors—such as we have quoted from the Janesville Daily Democrat—are likely to lead to the very occurrences which they describe. The crime of murder is suggested to the slave, if he should read what has been said—he hears, as the slaves of Tennessee did during the Fremont campaign—that republican emissaries are in the south, and this encourages him—that they are fomenting insurrection, and the slave gets ready to join it—that the plan is to burn houses and place the murderous knife at the throat of the master—and he gets his torch and knife ready.

Such a program as this being proposed, how slight a circumstance will set it all in motion. When done, and blood and devastation cover the south, in consequence of these suggestions, behold the Democrat, holding up its hands in horror at the spectacle, charging it all upon the republicans, who are innocent of any thought of instigating such misery and crime. If the south should learn the whole truth in the matter, we are persuaded, that these false and dangerous friends of theirs would be cast aside, and they would at the same time free themselves from groundless fears in relation to the intentions of the northern people.

GOOD NEWS FROM INDIANA.

The Madison Journal says that Mr. H. Cordier of that city has returned from a campaign of several weeks in Southern Indiana, whither he went by invitation of the republican committee to address the German population.

He brings the most favorable accounts of the republican cause there. He visited the same points in 1856, and says that where one German republican was then found there are twenty now. He puts down Indiana as sure for Lincoln.

REPUBLICAN MEETING AT MONROE.

The republicans of Green county had a very large and enthusiastic meeting at Monroe on Tuesday. There were, we learn, eight or ten thousand people present.

Senator Doolittle, Gov. Randall and H. Lindeman of Watrous, made eloquent and telling speeches, and altogether the meeting was a perfect success.

NOMINATION OF SAMUEL C. BEAN.

The republican convention in the east-southern district of Dane county, met at Door Creek, Tuesday, and nominated Hon. S. C. Bean for the state senate.

A SON-AMALGAMIST ON THE CAR.

A gentleman a few days ago arose from a sleeping car on the Lake Shore road this side of Erie, and the conductor saw him with eyes open, and boots off, but had no idea that he was asleep, and let him pass.

He went on and opened the car door, the cars were at full speed, and the man awoke and alone, in the platform. He goes down the steps, and—soon the conductor makes search for him everywhere through the train, but he was not to be found.

A man was sent back to the car, and soon found him not much injured, but a very mad man. The first consciousness the man had, he was twirling, tumbling and turning somersaults in the gravel, and the rattling train scudding away under a full moon as unconscious of his condition as he had been a minute before.—Buffalo Republic.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

WHEAT CROP OF MICHIGAN.—It is the habit of the west to over estimate the crops. This is all wrong. It is now ascertained that the crop of wheat in Michigan, instead of being 10,000,000 bushels is 10,000,000 bushels. Even this is two million bushels more than last year. Wisconsin and Minnesota are the only states that have a remarkable yield.

The Millerites have just concluded their annual religious service in North Wilbraham, Mass. The sect, it is stated, now numbers 50,000 in the United States and Canada, and representatives from nearly every state in the Union attend their annual camp meetings. Great diversity of opinion exists among them regarding the time when the world is coming to an end. Some anticipate the universal overthrow in six weeks, others look for it previous to the last of March, 1861, while others still are confident that it will be postponed ten years and two weeks.

The burning of the town of Henderson, Texas, noticed not long since in our columns, has been added by the southern papers as one of the proofs of a diabolical abolition plot in the southwest. It turns out, however, to have been the work of a slaveholder. No abolitionist had anything to do with it. Green Herndon and his servant girl having been tried for the crime and convicted, were hanged on the 25th ult.

Two villains lately entered the house of Mr. Guntz, near the Hellenville postoffice. As it was early in the morning nobody was in but Mrs. Guntz, who was in bed, and they presented pistols at her head and rifled a trunk in the room of $16.

A brother-in-law of Mr. Guntz had come from Milwaukee, bringing with him several hundred dollars, and it is supposed that the robbers followed him. Both men are about 35 years of age, and they wore black hats.—Jefferson Co. Republican, 12th.

A BAD PLACE FOR AN OLD FREE SOILER.

A new Douglas paper has been started in Janesville, edited by W. H. Bristol and J. D. Mann. W. H. Bristol was an old whig; a free-soiler; then an ardent aspirant for a postoffice, failing in which, he goes in for that chief of all political adventurers, Douglas. It is a bad political record in any place, but more especially in sound old Rock, where slavery apologists always get most terribly hatched.—Racine Advocate.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

BUFFALO, Sept. 20.

Douglas arrived here from New Orleans at noon and was received at the depot by a large concourse of people. He was accompanied by nearly two thousand persons from the adjoining towns, drawn hither to hear him speak.

Mr. Douglas was escorted by an imposing procession of citizens in carriages and on foot and little giants in uniform to the court house, where he spoke to an audience of about 20,000 persons.

In the evening the democracy was dressed by Mr. Douglas, Mr. Marshall of Ky., Mr. Scheibel and other distinguished gentlemen. The torch light procession by the little giants was a brilliant affair, about two thousand torches being in the line. He goes to Ohio to-morrow.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. Sept. 20.

Detroit, Sept. 21.

Front of Russell house completely crowded with spectators all anxious to catch a glimpse of the Prince when he should appear to take his departure for the cars.

Just before 10 o'clock he made his appearance with two of his suite accompanied by Mayor Ball, intending to drive through the city before proceeding to the cars, a magnificent barouche drawn by four white horses had been provided for the purpose in which the party was to depart.

The crowd gathered about the carriage and blocking up the avenues made it almost impossible for carriages to proceed. Cheer after cheer was given and the wildest enthusiasm prevailed.

The carriage was followed by immense crowds on foot, many hanging to the wheels while the streets and sidewalks on the route were literally blocked with the people who interrupted the royal party for every turn, such a rabble and such a confusion that it was necessary to make the amount due the party of the Prince.

After driving through a few of the principal streets followed by the immense crowds at every step, the party proceeded to the depot and took their departure for Chicago amid the firing of a salute and other demonstrations.

Wheat market shade firmer with fair export demand to complete freight engagements, sales 9,000 bushels Milwaukee club 1.23a 1.25.

Flour—owing to favorable eastern advices to-day the market exhibits symptoms of improvement, and we note sales of 200 barrels Berlin City Mills and 300 barrels Fox River all spring extras, on terms not made public.

Wheat—the market has declined about 1c since yesterday and buyers would not offer over 51c for No. 1, at the close though previously sales were made at 52c, sellers offering pretty freely at 50a52c for Nos. 2 and 1.

THE VERDICT.

An inquisition taken at Delavan, county of Walworth, in the state of Wisconsin, on the 15th day of September, 1880, before Newton McGraw, one of the justices of the peace in said county, upon the view of the body of Mrs. Sarah Darius, George Catlin, George Stupple, George Baker, and Margaret Seaman, there dead, by the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed, who being duly sworn to enquire, on behalf of the people of this state, when, in what manner, and by what means the said Mrs. Sarah Darius, George Catlin, George Stupple, George Baker, and Margaret Seaman came to their death, upon their oaths do say: That the said deceased, and each of them, came to their death on the evening of the 14th of September, 1880, while in the cars of the passenger train at rest at the depot in the village of Delavan, by being run into by a train of freight cars coming from the east. That said collision and the death of said deceased, and each of them, was caused through the gross negligence of T. J. Cupple, the conductor of the passenger train, and through the gross negligence of W. H. Eastman, the conductor, and A. L. Owen, the engineer of the train of the freight cars; and through gross negligence and want of efficiency of R. D. Ketchingman, the brakeman on the passenger train.

In testimony whereof, the said justice of the peace, and the jurors of this inquest, have hereunto set their hands, the day and year aforesaid.

A DUEL BETWEEN TWO BROTHERS.

A quarrel arose, a few nights ago, between two brothers named Longino (William and Berrill), residing a few miles above Camp, when a proposition was made by one of them that they should fight it out immediately with double-barrelled shot guns. It was accepted by the other, and firing simultaneously, both of them were instantly killed.

CARL SCHURZ COMING.—Carl Schurz, the distinguished German orator, will address the German citizens of Buffalo, and the vicinity, on Saturday, Oct. 13. We make the announcement with great pleasure, that the voice of this most eloquent of the sons of Fatherland, is to be heard for freedom in our midst. Let there be a monster gathering, such as Erie county has never witnessed before.—Buffalo Com. Adv.

Go It, Blondin!

During the Prince's visit to Niagara, Blondin surpassed himself and all his tomahawk-brained exploits.

In addition to the usual tight rope program, he added one item which many people supposed was a "dodge," to draw a crowd.

But when the time came, the intrepid little Frenchman was on hand for the fulfillment of all he had promised; and, in spite of the remonstrances of the Prince and his party, actually traversed his rope on stilts!

In making one of the prodigious leaps advertised in his bill, he was obliged to come down astride the rope; but, without removing his stilts, regained his footing and successfully completed the trip!

The stilts used on this occasion were about two feet high, and furnished at the lower end with three short prongs of iron, which served him as claws do a bird. In the history of recklessness and dare-devilry, there is nothing like this exploit!—Chicago Tribune.

DEATH OF MRS. LAWRENCE.—We learn that Mrs. Wm. A. Lawrence died this forenoon about 11 o'clock.

ATTENTION

Wide Awake!

The regular meeting of the Wide Awake was postponed until this (Friday) evening at 7 o'clock.

A meeting of the Rock County Agricultural Society and Mechanics Institute, will be held at the Court Room in the city of Janesville, on

County papers are requested to copy.

Mr. HARVEY ARRIVED.—Hon. L. P. Harvey arrived this afternoon, and will be prepared to meet his fellow citizens at the court room this evening.

to-day we had the curiosity to discover how and where, and found the wall resting in a good degree of forwardness.

These walls are under the charge of John Watson, who is doing an unusually good job.

The base is laid 5 feet, with solid stone generally 4 by 5 feet, 15 inches thick, the top of the wall being 3 feet.

A heavy mass of masonry indicates the vault of the Rock County Bank, which will have rooms on Milwaukee street fronting on the river, is to be constructed.

The foundation of this masonry is laid on the same size of stone as the foundation walls, and shows a structure 10 by 12 feet, 17 1/2 feet high from the base to the bottom of the vault.

Aside from the rooms for the bank, there will be four stores fronting on Milwaukee street, and one on Main street.

It is expected that the building will be so far completed on the 1st of September next as to have the stores in readiness for occupation.

When completed it will be a valuable addition to the improvements of the city and an ornament to the town.

The builders, Messrs. Jackson & Smith, are abundantly able to erect a structure of this character, and will expend from $20,000 to $25,000 upon it.

She had been started to exercise over the course, and came in contact with a team before a buggy with Mr. J. M. Burgess crossing the track.

The rider attempted to avoid the team and buggy, but was unsuccessful, and Kitty received a severe wound in the flank from the whiffle-tree of the buggy.

Mr. Burgess was not aware that the track had been cleared for a race. The rider of the mare was thrown from her, and when taken up was supposed to be badly injured, but fortunately he was not badly hurt.

FINE MELODS.—C. H. Campbell, of Footville, had some remarkably fine melons on exhibition at the county fair.

The variety called the "ice cream" is not excelled by any we have seen in Wisconsin.

Several were purchased by our citizens for the purpose of obtaining the seed.

AUCTION SALE.—Hogan sells to-morrow some valuable household furniture and a splendid double-barrel shot gun; sale commencing at 10 o'clock A. M.

This will be a good opportunity for those wanting articles of this kind.

These manufacturers consisted of a light top buggy, a double-seated extension-top carriage, valued at $350, and a double-seated single-top carriage.

In finish, style and strength, they are equal to any of the eastern work brought into the state, and when such articles can be procured at home, there is no reason for sending abroad for them.

We are pleased that such an establishment as Mr. Hathaway has opened exists among us, and commend it to the support of all who appreciate the propriety of sustaining home manufactures.

All the timber used by Mr. Hathaway is of the best quality, and imported from the east.

It is made up by thoroughly qualified workmen, in a style that would be commended in the best eastern shops.

A THIRILLING INCIDENT.

The guests of the Lafayette Hotel, corner of Julia and Magazine streets, yesterday, while at dinner, were the victims of a thrilling incident which at least how intense and profound are the sympathies of the human heart.

A woman, a stranger, appeared at the door of the dining room, and uttered a scream of terror. What she said was inaudible, but her actions indicated that something dreadful was occurring. There was a simultaneous rush for the door, and out upon the banquet, when, horror of horrors! a little girl, about five years old, a daughter of one of the lady guests of the hotel, was seen to be hanging from the hook of a window blind in the third story, some forty feet above the banquet!

Every heart seemed to be torn with the terrible interest—but it was for an instant only. A friendly hand within grasped her convulsively, and—little Dora was safe!

As the words "she's safe, she's safe," rang throughout the hall, the mother, who had not yet reached the door, but who nevertheless had a presentiment that her child was in danger, swooned and fell on the floor. The little girl had been at play in the room and swung out upon the blind. The instant that she was suspended at the high end of the banquet, her little hands lost their power, and had not her dress caught upon the hook or catch of the blind, she must have fallen to the ground and been dashed to pieces.

Captain Kirk was ascending the stairs at the time, and hearing the alarm and comprehending the what was the matter, rushed into the room and rescued the little creature.—A. O. Bulletin, Tuesday.

THE FROG TRADE.—The Prairie Farmer says: "A few of our readers, and perhaps few of the citizens of the city, are aware of the extent to which the frog trade is carried in Chicago. There are men who during the entire season have made the catching and marketing of frogs a business—some of them earning three and four dollars per day by this labor.

Thousands of frogs have been gathered from the marshes and low wet places to gratify the epicures of the Garden City, and we are informed the trade is constantly improving."

PERSONAL.—John B. Gough, the eloquent pensioner orator, will speak in Chicago on Thursday, the 6th of December.

THE SHELPS.—The Congregational Church will be rented on Monday, the 24th inst., at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. All persons wishing to obtain seats for the coming year are requested to be at the church, promptly at the hour.

Rock County Agricultural Society.

A meeting of the Rock County Agricultural Society and Mechanics' Institute, will be held at the Court Room in the city of Janesville, on

County papers are requested to copy.

MR. HARVEY ARRIVED.—Hon. L. P. Harvey arrived this afternoon, and will be prepared to meet his fellow citizens at the court room this evening. Give him a full audience.

JACKMAN & SMITH'S NEW BLOCK.—The work of laying the foundation walls of this block has made considerable progress, quietly and out of sight, under the buildings now standing on the lots. We had noticed that the stone daily delivered at the end of the bridge daily disappeared somewhere, and to-day we had the curiosity to discover how and where. We found the wall fronting on the river, and a part on Milwaukee street in a good degree of forwardness. These walls are under the charge of John Watson, who is doing an unusually good job. The base is laid 5 feet, with solid stone generally 4 by 5 feet, 15 inches thick, the top of the wall being 3 feet. A heavy mass of masonry indicates where the vault of the Rock County Bank, which will have rooms on Milwaukee street fronting on the river, is to be constructed. The foundation of this masonry is laid on the same size of stone as the foundation walls, and shows a structure 10 by 12 feet, 17 1/2 feet high from the base to the bottom of the vault. It looks strong enough to uphold even the U. S. treasury.

The entire block is to be 105 feet on Milwaukee street by 55 on Main street, four stories high, and built with Milwaukee brick. Aside from the rooms for the bank, there will be four stores fronting on Milwaukee street, and one on Main street. It is expected that the building will be so far completed on the 1st of September next as to have the stores in readiness for occupation. When completed it will be a valuable addition to the improvements of the city and an ornament to the town. The builders, Messrs. Jackman & Smith, are abundantly able to erect a structure of this character, and will expend from $20,000 to $25,000 upon it.

ACCIDENT AT THE FAIR GROUND.—Yesterday, afternoon, while preparing for a race, a severe accident occurred to 'Kitty Miles,' the well known running horse. Kitty had been started to exercise over the course, and came in contact with a team before a buggy with Mr. J. M. Burgess crossing the track. The rider attempted to avoid the team and buggy, but was unsuccessful, and Kitty received a severe wound in the flank from the whiffletree of the buggy. Mr. Burgess was not aware that the track had been cleared for a race. The rider of the mare was thrown from her, and when taken up was supposed to be badly injured, but fortunately he was but slightly hurt.

Mr. Elkins, of La Prairie, was the owner of 'Kitty,' and had her matched with 'Little Ellen,' for a large purse, the race to take place in Milwaukee in a few days.

FINE MELONS.—C. H. Campbell, of Footville, had some remarkably fine melons on exhibition at the county fair. The variety called the 'ice cream' is not excelled by any we have seen in Wisconsin. Several were purchased by our citizens for the purpose of obtaining the seed.

ACTION SALE.—Hogan sales to-morrow some valuable household furniture and a splendid double-barrel shot gun; sale commencing at 10 o'clock A. M. This will be a good opportunity for those wanting articles of this kind.

A THRILLING INCIDENT.—The guests of the Lafayette Hotel, corner of Julia and Magazine streets, were yesterday, while at dinner, thrown into a paroxysm of excitement by one of the thrilling incidents which attest how intense and profound are the sympathies of the human heart.

A woman, a stranger, appeared at the door of the dining room, and uttered a scream of terror. What she said was inaudible, but her actions indicated that something dreadful was occurring. There was a simultaneous rush for the door, and out upon the balcony, where, in a moment, a little girl about five years old, a daughter of one of the lady guests of the hotel, was seen suspended by her dress from the hook of a window blind in the third story, some forty feet above the banquet hall. Every heart ceased for an instant apparently to beat. It was a moment of thrilling, of terrible interest—but it was for an instant only. A friendly hand from within grasped her convulsively, and—little Dora was safe!

As the words 'she's safe, she's safe,' rang throughout the hall, the mother, who had not yet reached the door, but who nevertheless had a presentiment that her child was in danger, swooned and fell on the floor. The little girl had been at play in the room and swung out upon the blind.—The instant that she was suspended at the giddy height over the banquet hall, her hands lost their power, and had not her dress caught upon the hook or notch of the blind, she must have fallen to the ground and been dashed to pieces. Captain Kirk was ascending the stairs at the time, and hearing the alarm and comprehending the what was the matter, rushed into the room and rescued the little creature.—N. O. Bulletin, Tuesday.

THE FROG TRADE.—The Prairie Farmer says: 'Few of our readers, and perhaps few of the citizens of the city, are aware of the extent to which the frog trade is carried in Chicago. There are many men, and hands, who have made the catching and marketing of frogs a business—some of them earning three and four dollars per day by this labor. Thousands of frogs have been gathered from the marshes and low wet places to gratify the epicures of the Garden City, and we are informed the trade is constantly improving.'

PERSONAL.—John D. Cough, the eloquent temperance orator, will speak in Chicago on Thursday, the 6th of December.

THE SLIPS.—In the Congressional course will be sent on Monday the 24th inst., at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. All persons wishing to obtain seats for the coming year are requested to be at the church promptly at the hour.

By order of the Trustees.

September 21, 1880.

The City Treasurer.

Has removed his office to the room over the Meat Market on the upper bridge, and he respectfully gives notice to all who have not paid in their taxes to do so without delay, and save costs, as the time for collecting the same is drawing to a close.

GEO. A. YOUNG, City Treasurer.
